A top-down photograph of a wooden desk. In the center is a large, unfolded map. To the left is a silver laptop displaying a grid of travel photos. Above the laptop is a small potted plant. To the right of the map is a black camera with a strap. Below the map, a person's hands are visible; one hand holds a pen and is writing in a notebook, while the other hand holds a small white cup. There are also some sticky notes and a pen on the desk.
